

SLAPPING GOD IN THE FACE

Some time ago, God showed me a startling picture of what those who claim to believe in him do either when they worry or when they try to control situations or people. They stand up on their prideful tiptoes and proceed with the following:

SLAP! GOD, I DON'T TRUST YOU! SLAP! YOU'RE NOT BIG ENOUGH TO HANDLE MY SITUATION! SLAP! SLAP! I'LL JUST HAVE TO TAKE CARE OF THINGS MYSELF! SLAP! LEAVE ME ALONE AND LET ME WORRY!! SLAP! SLAP!

This is what unbelievers do, but that is to be expected of them. They don't know him yet. It is the utmost arrogance for those who claim to call God "Father" and to be his children. Either He is God or He isn't. If He is God, He is able to handle anything, no matter how impossible it appears. All we have to do is trust Him as our Daddy and let go of the situation. We will only make a bigger mess if we don't.
